Careers Breakfast Meetings

Our next Careers Breakfast meeting will be with Professor David Bond from the University of Hull Geography Department. This meeting will coincide with Green Careers Week 4-8 November and will highlight the benefits of studying Geography and Environmental Science at university and the range of Green Careers that are available. On 27 November we will welcome Jane Evison, Innovation Lead at Reckitt. Jane will be talking about her fascinating career which started out with a degree and PhD in Food Science leading into a role as Principal Scientist with Boots, research and development with Scholl and, more recently, R&D Lead for products such as Gaviscon. Flyers advertising both events will be sent out via email shortly so please keep an eye out for those landing in your inbox. Students, please click on this link to request a speaker and for parents, please email jo.harding@tranby.org.uk to discuss presenting at a Careers Breakfast Meeting.

Green Careers Week 4-8 November 2024
